

C
O
P
Y

STATINTL

January 22, 1951

Gen. William J. Donovan
Donovan, Leisure, Newton Lombard & Irvine
2 Wall Street
New York, N. Y.

Dear General Donovan,

I want to reiterate what I said to you this morning - that I am not trying to transfer from artillery to intelligence to land myself a desk job somewhere. I feel that I have qualifications which would be used to better advantage in intelligence work than in artillery. I also feel that intelligence would be much more interesting for me, and that I would have something to offer it. At any rate, here is the information I promised you about my experience to date:

At prep school I had been properly appraised.
+ed "her

Many, many thanks for your kindness in this matter.

Sincerely,

STATINTL

